Dear Grazebrook Families,

Events at Grazebrook this term

Please find below information about our upcoming family events. Reading Breakfasts, Come Learn With Me and Celebration Assemblies are open to all families, just come to the main reception area at the time listed below. Come Dine With Me events allow you to join your child for lunch. There are limited places due to the capacity of the dinner hall, however, these events are termly to allow all families to attend at least once a year. Places need to be booked in advance through the school office and an adult dinner ticket costing £5 needs to be purchased. Thank you!

The Nursery team will be in touch separately to let you know about the events on offer for Nursery families this term.
