We collect information from you and may receive information about you from third party organisations. If you have any queries about this Privacy Notice please contact our Data Protection Officer Ms Alia Choudhry 0207 254 1415 dpo@newwavefederation.co.uk

The categories of personal data that we collect, process, hold and share include:

- personal information (such as name, address, employee or teacher number, national insurance number)
- special categories of data including characteristics information such as gender, age, ethnic group
- contract information (such as start dates, hours worked, post, roles and salary information)
- work absence information (such as number of absences and reasons)
- qualifications (and, where relevant, subjects taught)
- banking information relating to payment of salaries
- information relating to the physical or mental health of employees if required

Why we collect and use this personal data

We use school workforce data to:

- enable the development of a comprehensive picture of the workforce and how it is deployed
- to meet legal requirements in reporting staffing arrangements to the Department for Education
- inform the development of recruitment and retention policies
- enable individuals to be paid

The lawful basis on which we process this personal data

We process this information in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). Under the GDPR, the lawful basis' we rely on for processing personal information relating to staff members are:

- legal obligation
- necessary for performance of a contract
- legitimate interests

These lawful bases for processing are specified in Article 6 of the GDPR (<https://gdpr-info.eu/art-6-gdpr/>). The majority of the data processing falls under Articles 6(b) (performance of a contract).

In addition, the lawful basis for any processing activities concerning special category personal data is specified in Article 9(2)(b) of the GDPR (<https://gdpr-info.eu/art-9-gdpr/>) and Part 1 of Schedule 1 of the Data Protection Act 2018 (<https://publications.parliament.uk/pa/bills/cbill/2017-2019/0153/18153.pdf>) where the processing is necessary for the purposes of performing or exercising obligations or rights of the controller or the data subject under employment or social security law.

Statutory data processing activities such as submitting data for the school workforce census are undertaken in accordance with Article 6(c) and Article 9(2)(b) when special category personal data is involved. Submission of school workforce census returns (including a set of named staff records) is a statutory requirement on schools and local authorities by virtue of regulations made under sections 113 and 114 of the Education Act 2005. This means that:

- although schools and local authorities must meet their obligations to data subjects information law, they do not need to obtain consent for the provision of information from individual members of the workforce
- schools and local authorities are protected from any legal challenge that they are breaching a duty of confidence to staff members
- schools and local authorities must complete a return.

Storing this data

We hold records about staff for a set period of time depending on the type of information they contain. Details about how long we keep different types of records containing personal data can be found here on the Retention Schedule.

Who we share this data with

We routinely share this information with:

- our local authority (The London Borough of Hackney)
- the Department for Education (DfE)

The DfE collects and processes personal data relating to those employed by schools (including Multi Academy Trusts) and local authorities that work in state funded schools (including all maintained schools, all academies and free schools and all special schools including Pupil Referral Units and Alternative Provision). All state funded schools are required to make a census submission because it is a statutory return under sections 113 and 114 of the Education Act 2005

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Department for Education including the data that we share with them, go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/datacollection-and-censuses-for-schools>.

For more information about the department's data sharing process, please visit: <https://www.gov.uk/data-protection-how-we-collect-and-share-research-data>

To contact the department: <https://www.gov.uk/contact-dfe> As a federation we share staff data across schools sites for safeguarding purposes under the lawful basis of special category data collection.

Why we share school workforce data

We are required to share information about our workforce members with our local authority (LA) under section 5 of the Education (Supply of Information about the School Workforce) (England) Regulations 2007 and amendments.

We share personal data with the Department for Education (DfE) on a statutory basis. This data sharing underpins workforce policy monitoring, evaluation, and links to school funding / expenditure and the assessment educational attainment.
