

Monday 11th November 2024

Dear Grazebrook Families,

Choose Respect – Monday 11th to Friday 15th November!

This week is Anti-Bullying Week, an annual event aimed at raising awareness of bullying among children and young people in schools across the country. The event also highlights ways to prevent and respond to bullying. The theme for this year's Anti-Bullying Week is Choose Respect, and we are committed to doing just that!

On Tuesday 12th November, we will be taking part in the fabulous Odd Sock Day, an exciting way to empower children and celebrate what makes them—and others—unique. Get those odd socks ready, and the brighter, the better!

Throughout the week, we will explore themes of respect and kindness through curriculum lessons, in-class discussions, and whole-school assemblies. On Tuesday 12th November, we will also welcome Konflux Theatre in Education for their Play in a Day and Early Years Magical Carpet workshops.

On Friday 15th November, we will once again show our 'Spot.....acular' support for Children in Need. Children can dress as Pudsey, wear as much yellow as possible, or sport spotty clothing for a SPOTacular charity fancy dress look. We would also appreciate it if each child could bring in a small donation—a golden coin or any affordable amount would be greatly appreciated.

If you would like to find out more about the anti-bullying initiative, there is some helpful guidance for families here.

Warm wishes,

Simone Bunbury
Deputy Headteacher
